

The Court Historian

Volume 11,1 (July 2006)

The articles in this issue are based on lectures given at the joint Society for Court Studies / Victorian Society conference on Courts and Capitals 1815-1914, held at the Wallace Collection on 1 October 2005.

CONTENTS

Articles

|                       |   |    |
|-----------------------|---|----|
| David Watkin   | The Transformation of Munich into a Royal Capital by Maximilian I Joseph and Ludwig I | 1  |
| Philip Mansel  | Paris, Court City of the Nineteenth Century   | 15 |
| Alan Sked      | Franz Joseph and the Creation of the Ringstrasse                                      | 29 |
| Steven Brindle | Buckingham Palace and the Victoria Memorial, 1901-1914                                | 43 |

Review Article

|                         |   |    |
|-------------------------|---|----|
| Mary Oleskiewicz | Italian Opera at German Courts and the Return of Johann Mattheson's Boris Goudenow | 59 |
|-------------------------|---|----|

Exhibition Review

|                  |                     |    |
|------------------|---------------------|----|
| John Keay | The Celestial Court | 70 |
|------------------|---------------------|----|

Conference Report

|                      |                                    |    |
|----------------------|------------------------------------|----|
| Philip Mansel | The Globalisation of Court History | 77 |
|----------------------|------------------------------------|----|

|   |    |
|---|----|
| News                                 | 81 |
| Publications                         | 82 |
| Sales and Acquisitions               | 90 |
| Exhibitions                          | 92 |
| Recent and Forthcoming Conferences   | 94 |
| News from the Society                | 96 |
| News from the North American Society | 99 |